203 A Serene Pinot

Only certain vintages have the depth, richness, and dark-fruited characteristics which are worthy of going into Monogram. This 2002 Domaine Serene Pinot Noir Monogram is aged in new French oak barrels for 18 months and further aged 24 months in bottle before release. It is truly the epitome of American Pinot Noir and one that will offer handsome rewards with years of proper cellaring.

Value: $250 Donated by: The Village Pub

204 Ebony and Ivory

Both of these bottles are from sold-out vintages and not available to the general public. The 2006 Sonoma Coast Heintz Pinot Noir is a dark transparent plum color that explodes out of the glass with aromas of plums, black berries, lilac and sand stone. The 2006 Sonoma Coast Heintz Chardonnay's tight aromatics of dried straw, lime leaves and pan grille only hint at what the future holds.

Value: $96 Donated by: Heintz Vineyards

205 Double Your Silver Oak Pleasure

The 2005 Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon from Silver Oak beautifully expresses the full aromatic ripeness of this exemplary vintage. But, not to be out done, the 2003 Cab is a complex and concentrated wine that deftly balances intensity and finesse.

229 Immortality in a 1994 Harlan

This celestial 1994 Harlan Estate Cabernet Sauvignon is followed by spectacular aromatics that soar from the glass, offering up black currants, minerals, smoked herbs, cedar wood, coffee, and pain grille. What is so extraordinary about this wine is that it offers no hint of heaviness or coarseness. Harlan's 1994 comes close to immortality in the glass.

Value: $990 Donated by: James Shennan

230 Harmony in a 1995 Harlan

This pristine 1995 Harlan Estate Cabernet Sauvignon is an opaque purple-colored Cabernet that presents a nose of smoke, coffee beans, black and blue fruits, minerals, and roasted herbs. It is extremely full-bodied, with spectacular purity, exquisite equilibrium, and a seamless personality with everything in total harmony. The finish lasts for more than 40 seconds. An extravagantly rich, profoundly complex 1995. Anticipated maturity: 2001-2027.

Value: $745 Donated by: James Shennan

231 Concentration in a 1996 Harlan

This extraordinary 1996 Harlan Estate Cabernet Sauvignon reveals intensity, a spicy, black currant, tobacco, cedar, and fruit cake-scented bouquet, full body, a texture oozing with glycerin and concentrated fruit, and moderate tannin in the blockbuster finish. It is one of the most concentrated and complete red wines one could hope to taste. Anticipated maturity: 2004-2030.

Value: $695 Donated by: James Shennan

232 Perfection in a 1997 Harlan

The well-endowed 1997 Harlan Estate Cabernet Sauvignon is a profoundly rich wine that must be tasted to be believed. Opaque purple-colored, it boasts spectacular, soaring aromatics of vanilla, minerals, coffee, blackberries, licorice, and cassis. In the mouth, layer after layer unfold powerfully yet gently. Acidity, tannin, and alcohol are well-balanced by the wine's unreal richness and singular personality. The finish exceeds one minute. Anticipated maturity: 2001-2030.

Value: $1,000 Donated by: James Shennan

233 The Liparita 6

6 Bottles of 1997 Liparita Napa Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon with good dark color, no variation, the nose is a half-open door, a sunny spring afternoon with a faint breeze that is a floral mix of red fruit (cherry, currant) caressing oak tree branches.

Value: $480 Donated by: James Shennan

234 Case of Rombauer Zin

This case of 2003 Rombauer Fiddletown Zinfandel is harvested from Gino Rinaldi's vineyard of 100-year-old dry farmed vines for a concentrated, classic zin. Very big, jammy and sweet with lots of fruit. Almost dessert-like, much like drinking port.

Value: $300 Donated by: Chet and Peggy Brians
